PSEU Solidarity Committee

Members of the Executive, Standing Orders and branches,

The PSEU Solidarity Committee is comprised of members of the Executive committee and nominees from branches.

The purpose of the committee is to enable us to develop our understanding of the globalisation of trade and its effects on workers and to facilitate a PSEU contribution to a stronger global trade unionism which can help to protect workers' rights in developing countries. Some of the issues the committee have addressed are

- developing links with trade unions in developing countries
- Child Labour
- Third World Debt / Make Poverty History
- Supporting Banana Workers
- HIV/Aids Education
- Disabled Workers in Ethiopia, Tanzania, Uganda and Rwanda
- Sponsorship of 'What in the World' TV Documentary programs

The committee works closely with the Global Solidarity Committee of ICTU. Eugene Quinn AGS, Niall Mc Guirk Vice President and Paul McCrea Social Protection are members of this committee.

Persons interested in serving on this committee should forward their nomination to Roisin Harrison rharrison@pseu.ie by close of business Tuesday 11th April 2017

Yours sincerely,

Eugene Quinn,

Assistant General Secretary.
